THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT AUSTIN
DEPARTMENT OF THEATRE AND DANCE
PRESENTS
THE REGIONAL PREMIERE OF

BUILDING THE WALL

BY AWARD-WINNING PLAYWRIGHT ROBERT SCHENKKAN

AUGUST 30-SEPTEMBER 10, 2017
AT THE OSCAR G. BROCKETT THEATRE

“Urgent and powerful theater.”
- The Hollywood Reporter

From Pulitzer Prize and Tony Award®-winning playwright Robert Schenkkan (All the Way, The Kentucky Cycle, Hacksaw Ridge), comes the incendiary political thriller that is captivating audiences across the country. The University of Texas at Austin Department of Theatre and Dance presents Building the Wall, directed by Brant Pope, August 30-September 10, 2017 at the Oscar G. Brockett Theatre.

Written in “a white heat” fury following the November 2016 election, Schenkkan’s Building the Wall imagines a dystopia impacted by President Trump’s border and immigration policies. It’s the near future and millions of undocumented immigrants have been detained in overflowing prisons. Now, a writer interrogates the director of a private prison as he awaits sentencing for carrying out the federal policy that has escalated into the unimaginable. This riveting and illuminating drama delivers a powerful warning and puts a human face on the inhuman, revealing how, when personal accountability is denied, what seems inconceivable becomes inevitable.

“A scorcher of a play with gripping storytelling!”
- Variety

Building the Wall first opened in March at Los Angeles’ Fountain Theatre where it has been extended three times, with performances continuing to sell out nightly. “We are honored to present the regional premiere of our alumnus’ work,” shares Brant Pope, the play’s director and chair of the Department of Theatre and Dance. “This is a thrilling and terrifying play concerning people and the issues vitally important to Texas and the region.” The production features a professional cast, including Franchelle Stewart Dorn as “Gloria” and David Sitler as “Rick.”

The production of Building the Wall is the centerpiece for a series of panels taking place September 7, 2017, which bring together the public, playwrights, directors and arts critics in a dialogue about new play development and production.
