

DIAMANTE MARTINEZ

Theatre Maker and Artist

¿quién soy?

Hi Friends!

My name is Diamante and I am a theatre maker and artist. I am currently the head theater director at Del Valle High School located right outside of Austin, TX. I am passionate about sharing the power of theatre and storytelling. I am proud to be from El Paso, Texas.

My identity fuels my theatre work- I value hearing, sharing, and telling stories that highlight queer and/or Latiné experiences. Theatre is a magical space where collective healing can occur! Oh, also- ask me about my postcard collection sometime
